General Rules ~

Updates to the information found in this catalog will be found on the webpage. Service animals only allowed on fairgrounds by patrons. NO PETS ON THE FAIRGROUNDS.

Upon entry of any fair contests you give permission to publish any placings received, and pictures/video/audio to be used in any marketing materials. If you do not agree to this photo release, please stop in the main office. Entries are limited to person or groups residing in Pennsylvania.

1. Exhibitors may pick up entry tags for entries Saturday or Sunday when entering exhibits. The tags must be completed by the exhibitor with the Department, Class, Lot and exhibit description, and include the exhibitors number, name and address.

Tags must be attached to the exhibit and exhibits placed in the appropriate building. Exhibit entry times are Saturday 9am - 5pm and Sunday 11am - 5pm.

2. Pre-registration is welcome but not required. Exhibits must remain at the fair until the pickup times on Sunday and Monday after the fair.
3. Exhibits are considered “entered” when they are placed in the buildings.
4. Game and contest participants must register on the day of the event unless a pre-registration form is offered.
5. All exhibits must be entered in the name of the owner or producer since last year’s fair.
6. Exhibitors may have only one entry in a class, except livestock.
7. The Beaver Community Fair Association takes the precaution to protect exhibits by providing watchmen at times when the buildings are open to the public. The fair, its staff, and volunteers are not responsible for items that may be damaged at the fair.
8. Exhibits not properly entered will be re-entered and judged in the proper classes at department superintendent and judge’s discretion.
9. Exhibitors who pre-register can request to receive exhibit tags by mail. The cost is $1.00 for every 10 tags requested.
10. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to provide changes to address, phone number, etc. with the fair office. It is also the exhibitors responsibility to verify their exhibitor number for entries.
11. Personal kitchen appliances will not be allowed in the barns during fair week without approval of the fair president.
12. No open flames on the fairgrounds.
13. The Fair Board reserves the right to prohibit the sale of any items at our vendor stands that are deemed unfit.
14. Exhibits can be removed after fair at the following times - Sunday 2–4 pm, Monday 5-7 pm.

Judging

1. An exhibit may not be entered in the miscellaneous class if the premium list provides a class in which it can be entered.
2. Judges place entries by merit, even where there is no competition in a class.
3. The opinion of the judges shall be final, except in such cases where it is afterwards discovered that the entry is not according to the governing rules and regulations. In this case the management shall have the final word.
4. The names of all exhibitors shall be concealed until the judging is finished.
5. Only exhibits listed in the premium list will be judged.

6. Exhibits entered with more or less specimens than required will be disqualified. Exhibitors must check for the number of specimens needed when entries are made.
7. Judges have the right to award an exhibit with a Best of Show Ribbon. Not all categories may receive this award.

Premiums

1. No premiums are guaranteed in classes with less than three (3) entries.
2. The judges’ book is the final say of placing. No premiums will be altered due to a sticker placing.
3. All premium checks will be mailed and must be cashed within 90 days of the date issued

General Animal Rules ~

1. New Rule, any exhibitor wishing to enter an animal into any youth/market livestock class must not have reached 21 years of age as of January 1 prior to that years fair. This rule will take effect for all species in 2024, EXCEPT MARKET STEERS.
2. All animal shows will be considered "all natural". Any artificial means to change the form, shape or functionality of an animal will disqualify it from competition.
3. 4-H and Vocational Division is open to Snyder County 4-H and FFA members only.
4. 4-H/FFA livestock exhibitors must be taking the project during the current year and have the books evaluated or approved by the organizations advisor/educator in order to participate in 4-H/FFA related fair events.
5. Any animal of unthrifty nature, unsuitable condition, or showing signs of sickness may be removed from the fair as deemed necessary by the Livestock Manager or Fair President.
6. Swine must arrive at the fair Saturday, 6-8 pm for check in.
7. All beef, sheep, and goats must arrive at the fairgrounds from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm Sunday for check in.
8. Dairy animals may arrive Sunday, 9:00 am to 3:00 pm and Monday 9:00 am to 6:30 pm for check in.
9. Rabbits must arrive Sunday for check in and weighing 10 am – 12 pm.
10. Poultry must arrive Sunday for check-in and weighing at 12 pm.
11. Health Paperwork for Animal Exhibition:
 1. Swine : Before unloading, a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI) issued within 14 days of the fair, must be presented at check in .
 2. Poultry: An Owner-Endorsed Poultry Health Certificate or Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (health chart or CVI), must accompany all poultry. As well as Avian Influenza test results within the 30 day rule. Poultry see Dept 10 Class 80.
 3. All other animals must present with a CVI issued within 30 days of the fair, (except rabbits), and will be verified before unloading animals.
12. Market animals are to be shown and presented for show/sale by the exhibitor. In case of two entries in the same class or illness of the exhibitor, another 4-H or FFA member may show the animal. Any 4-H or FFA member unable to show their animal, either at the show or sale, for any reason must submit a letter to the Livestock Manager seeking permission to have them shown by another 4-H or FFA member. An adult may not present animals entered in a youth competition to the judge.
13. Ownership: To be eligible for competition, whether singly or in groups, animals must be bona fide property of the exhibitor by July 15 as evi-denced by their registration paper issued by their US Breed Association. No photostats or other copies will be accepted. Pending transfers will not be accepted. Exhibitors are advised to keep registration certificates available at all times.
14. 4-H members leasing animals must have the appropriate lease paperwork completed and approved by the 4-H Educator on or before June 1. FFA members leasing animals must have the project as part of their AET and it must be approved by the advisor.
15. All animals must be owned by the exhibitor unless a leased project, with required paperwork.
16. Exhibitors and a parent/guardian are required to attend one of the following exhibitor meetings:

Sunday 3:00 pm, or Monday 7:00 pm

17. Exhibitors staying on the grounds overnight must register at the livestock office. Exhibitors under 18 years of age must complete a permission slip found at beaverfair.org and submit to the livestock office. All exhibitors must check in with the nightly chaperone at 10 pm. Only exhibitors are eligible to complete an overnight form. Approval to stay overnight will be granted on the accessibility of chaperones.
18. All dairy and livestock exhibitors must supply feed and bedding for their animals, as well as the needed equipment. Care for animals must be provided daily.
19. If your fair pen is found to be in an unacceptable condition, the Livestock Manager and Sale Manager will tie a red ribbon on your pen and you will be notified. If after 24 hours your pen hasn't been cleaned, you will be assessed a $25 fee per occurrence. When a pen is flagged the exhibitor must report to the Livestock office when cleaned. A fair official must check the pen. Flags may be removed by a fair official only. At the discretion of the Livestock Manager, Fair Manager, and Fair President, pens can be sent home.
20. Exhibitors with animals in the swine, lamb, and goat pens will be required to clean out their pens before Sunday night. Rabbit and Poultry exhibitor pens must be cleaned by Saturday night. When all Bovine are removed, the exhibitor is expected to move their bedding 2ft from the wall or center divider of their stall. Pens not cleaned will result in a loss of premium checks.
21. Barn Cleaning starts promptly at 12:00 PM Sunday. All Tack and Animals MUST be REMOVED before noon Sunday.
22. No animal shall be on the premises if it has been administered a forbidden substance in any manner. A forbidden substance is any stimulant, depressant, or local anesthetic which might affect the behavior of the animal. No drugs are permitted to be administered to any animal without permission of the department superintendent, livestock manager or an accredited veterinarian.
23. Entries will be accepted on a first come, first served basis due to limited space. Exhibitors are asked to use sound judgment as to the number of entries because of this limited space. Space will be allocated on a square footage per animal basis with Snyder County Youth Livestock Sale entries receiving first priority, and then in this order: youth breeding (6 per exhibitor with a total of 12 per farm, firm or family), Open breeding (6 per exhibitor with a total of 12 per farm, firm or family), and out of county open breeding.
24. In the event of the death of an animal, the exhibitor must provide an autopsy by an accredited veterinarian and subsequent test to determine the cause of the animals' death.
25. Stall assignments will be made by the Livestock/Dairy Manager and Committee. Exhibitors and parents may request special placement, but should know this may not be possible.
26. No stalls will be used for tack or feed unless assigned and approved by the Livestock Manager and Committee.
27. All animal entry forms (copies of Official Breed Association Registration forms for all purebred, non-market animals, and entry fees, except market entries must be attached) must be filled out and mailed to Livestock Manager Matt Brandt. Please send them to: Matt Brandt, 1692 Neitz Valley Road, Selinsgrove, PA 17870 by August 1. Or Dropped in the Fairgrounds Drop Box ONLY.
28. September 1 is the final date to scratch an animal. "No-show" animals will need a Veterinarians certificate to indicate why the animal is not being exhibited, or a $25 fee will be deducted from exhibitors premium check.
29. Animals must be double tied with neck chains/collars and a halter.
30. Check out will begin at the close of the tractor pulls or 11 pm at the discretion of the fair board.
